

Thanks for a great trail season!

As we walk, run or ride into the sunset of our 2023 trail season, we want to extend a heartfelt thank you to the hundreds of volunteers, supporters, sponsors, donors, land managers, staff and crew who made our 2023 season the best ever. In Durango, we value outdoor recreation and community and we are honored to work alongside each of you to make it possible. Continue to follow us on Facebook and Instagram for up to date information on Trail Conditions and other trail news.

Year End Campaign

Next week our year-end mailer will arrive in your mailbox and/or inbox, please consider including Durango Trails in your year-end giving to help us plan, build and maintain trails, educate trail users and create connections.

Thank you for your consideration and Happy Trails!

Year End Giving

Want to get a jump on your year-end giving and support the trails you love? Early Giving for Southwest Colorado Gives Day has begun! Colorado Gives Day, scheduled for December 5, 2023, is an annual giving initiative that celebrates philanthropy statewide and inspires donors to “give where they live” through online donations. In 2022 $53 million was donated statewide in just one day, making Colorado Gives Day the state’s largest one-day giving event. But, you don’t need to wait for December 5th to help your local trails. Please visit our SW Colorado Gives page and make your tax-deductible year-end gift today!
