Durango Devo's Executive Director, Levi Kurlander, says, "Durango Devo is proud of all our alumni, and we're certainly proud of Sepp Kuss! He is a great example of what makes Durango Devo and the Durango cycling community special. We are honored to host the Vuelta a España champion and Tour de France stage winner and celebrate his achievements in his hometown."

Special thanks for this event is owed to these community partners: Durango Devo staff and sponsors; the City of Durango; Visit Durango and Spoketober; Verde PR; Ska Brewing; Durango Coca-Cola; the Iron Horse Bicycle Classic; Durango Trails; and Fort Lewis College Cycling.

Annular solar eclipse set for Saturday

See the Ring of Fire: On October 14, 2023, Mesa Verde National Park will experience a direct annular eclipse covering the park. Starting around 10:31 am, areas of the park will experience over three minutes of "annularity", the period where the sunlight is blocked to its largest extent (nearly 90% of the sun)! Read below for more details and event planning, including a partnership with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

Junction Creek Traffic Calming Neighborhood Meeting:

The City of Durango is hosting a neighborhood meeting to discuss safety concerns and design solutions to improve safety and connectivity along the corridor by slowing speeds and improving infrastructure. The meeting will include a short presentation from staff and the consultant team and interactive boards/stations for community members to provide feedback on. The meeting will include refreshments and activities for kids.

October 26 from 5p to 7p at 2611 Junction Street

Sponsor Appreciation Corner

Special thanks to Switchback for hosting our yearend Staff + Crew Appreciation Party. The food was delicious-thank you for being a great community partner!
